The Woolen Co. band gave its last weekly concert in Buchanan, for the season, Wednesday night. The full band of 30 pieces rendered a splendid program before an immense crowd which thoroughly enjoyed each number. Thayer and his musicians, and the hope was expressed that they would come again next season.

JOHN F. GECKLER TO SPEAK HERE TONIGHT

Democrats Will Have Rousing Meeting in Headquarters, Old Methodist Church.

John F. Geckler, who was the German progressive candidate for congress from Indianapolis in 1914, will address the voters of Mishawaka and Penn township at democratic headquarters in the old Methodist church, corner Second and Mill sts., tonight at 8 o'clock. Much interest is being taken in the coming to Mishawaka of Mr. Geckler, and elaborate arrangements have been made for his reception. At a meeting of the committee held Wednesday night much enthusiasm was evident, and a number of willing workers were named to carry out the arrangements for the meeting. A large audience is expected to hear the former progressive who will tell his hearers why he is now a democrat, why he will support President Wilson and what the president has done for the American people in the past three years, particularly the working men. Ernest Beebe, township chairman, will preside over the meeting, and Atty. Charles Bingham will introduce the speaker.

CENTURY OPENS WITH VAUDEVILLE TONIGHT

The Century theater will open tonight for the season, with a splendid bill comprising three big vaudeville features, as well as four reels of pictures. Mishawakans always on the alert for good vaudeville, will be given an opportunity of seeing some of the biggest and best acts to be had. This is the intention of the management, which, notwithstanding the fact that vaudeville prices are being raised everywhere throughout the country, will show at prices prevailing last season, namely 15 cents for adults and five cents for children. The bill for the opening of this play house is a rattling good one, and comprises the dainty Hilda, Swedish violin virtuoso who has an international reputation; Gilmore and Castle, two black face artists whose comedy was good enough for the Majestic theater, Chicago, where they played last week; and the Roman Four, a big quartet of singers, instrumentalists and dancers, regular Orpheum acts. The pictures to be shown tonight will include King Baggot, in a two reel Universal feature.

TELEPHONE CO. BUYS THIRD ST. PROPERTY

Pays $125 Per Foot For Buildings at 114-116 E. Third St.

The purchase of property in Mishawaka by the Central Union Telephone Co. on which to erect a modern and thoroughly up-to-date exchange building, as first mentioned in Thursday morning's News-Times, created much interest throughout the city. The property is situated at 114-116 E. Third st., and directly opposite the Mishawaka hotel. Part of it has been occupied as offices for the past 12 years by Dr. Seymour, while a private family resides in the other house. It has been owned by J. deLorenzi for the past six years. The price obtained for the telephone company is understood to have been at the rate of $125 per foot, which is an indication of the healthy state of the realty in Mishawaka at the present time. The dimensions of the property are 56 by 99 ft. The property will be removed at once, and the ground cleared for the new building.

Plans for the new building have already been drawn by the company's architects, and work will be commenced without delay. The structure will be in keeping with the exchanges built throughout the country by the Bell people. The location is ideal, and when finished, the building should materially enhance property values in its vicinity.
